In the heart of the forest, Hazel the Squirrel was gathering the sweetest berries. Every day, she carefully stored them in her pantry. But one morning, when she opened the door, the berries were gone! "Oh no!" she exclaimed.